

China's Overseas Investment in the Belt and Road Era

samedi 28 août 2021, par Globalization Monitor (Date de rédaction antérieure : 20 août 2021).

A people and environmental perspective.

This report aims to provide an overview of some of the issues involved related to Chinese overseas investment and the consequences for recipient countries, the people and the environment. It is hoped that awareness can be raised with a view to coordinating further discussion amongst civil society and developing tools to assist environmental protection, defence of the rights of those negatively impacted, and the search for viable alternatives.
