

Rainbow Planet at the India Social Forum

Thursday 9 November 2006, by Movements \(India\) (Date first published: 6 November 2006).

Dear friend(s)

Rainbow Planet is a coalition of diverse progressive groups from India working for the rights of sexuality minorities (hijras, kothis, doubledeckers, lesbians, bisexuals, gays, homosexuals, transgenders..), sexworkers (men, women and transgender) and PLHA (People Living with HIV/AIDS). Our goal is to bring together sexuality minorities, sexworkers and PLHA to a common platform to build solidarity within them and also with other social movements.

We are organising the following events at the India Social Forum (Exhibition Ground, Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium, Delhi, 9th to 13th November, 2006):

1. Voices of sexworkers, sexuality minorities and People living with HIV/AIDS - a series of testimonies and speeches by activists from Kerala, Tamilnadu, Karnataka, Andhrapradesh, Maharashtra, Gujarat, West Bengal.. (On 10th afternoon, 12:30pm to 3:30pm, for 1000 people, Venue C2)
2. Rainbow March, a celebratory march of sexworkers, sexuality minorities and PLHA (10th evening, 3:30pm, starting from Venue C2)
3. Repeal IPC 377 - decriminalise homosexuality, bisexuality and transsexuality (co-organised with National Campaign for Sexuality Rights and Voices against 377) - a series of testimonies and speeches by sexuality minority activists and their supporters. (11th evening 4pm to 6:30pm, for 500 people, Venue P3)
4. Candle light vigil against IPC 377 (11th evening at 6:30pm)
