Call of the European Social Movement and Agenda of campaigns

Florence, Italy

Wednesday 12 October 2005, by Assembly of Movements (Date first published: 10 November 2002).

Here are the Call of the european social movements and the agenda which was decided upon in the Assembly of the 10th of November 2002 in Florence.

Call of the European Social Movements

We have come together from the social and citizens movements from all the regions of Europe, East and West, North and South. We have come together through a long process: the demonstrations of Amsterdam, Seattle, Prague, Nice, Gothenburg, Genoa, Brussels, Barcelona, the big mobilisations against neoliberalism as well as the general strikes for the defence of social rights and all the mobilisations against war, show the will to build an other Europe. At the global level we recognise the Charter of Principles of the WSF and the call of the social movements of Porto Alegre.

We have gathered in Florence to express our opposition to a European order based on corporate power and neoliberalism. This market model leads to constant attacks on the conditions and rights of workers, social inequalities, and oppression of ethnic minorities, and social exclusion of the unemployed and migrants. It leads to environmental degradation, privatisation and job insecurity. It drives powerful countries to try and dominate the economies of weaker countries, often to deny them real self determination. Once more it is leading to war.

We have come together to strengthen and enlarge our alliances because the construction of another Europe and another world is now urgent. We seek to create a world of equality, social rights and respect for diversity, a world in which education, fair jobs, healthcare and housing are rights for all, with the right to consume safe food products produced by farmers and peasants, a world without poverty, without sexism and oppression of women, without racism, and without homophobia. A world that puts people before profits. A world without war.

We have come together to discuss alternatives but we must continue to enlarge our networks and to plan the campaigns and struggles that together can make this different future possible. Great movements and struggles have begun across Europe: the European social movements are representing a new and concrete possibility to build up another Europe for another world. We commit ourselves to enlarge our networks for the next year in the following mobilisations and campaigns:

Against neoliberalism

- the campaign for the abolition of the third world debt. For the full abolition of the exterior public debt of the third world, against the policies of 'structural adjustment' and the conditions imposed by the World bank and the IMF. With the people from the south we ask: 'Who owes what to whom?' We claim reparations for the pillage of the third world. Deadlines: WB and IMF-meetings in April 2003 in Washington; the G8 in Evian in June 2003 (CADTM-international, RCADE, Jubilee South, Friends of the Earth, CNCD);

- the international mobilisation against the World Economic Forum in Davos: demonstration in Davos on 25/1/2003; conference « Public eye on Davos » (23-27/1/2003); conference « Autre Davos » à Zurich (23.1.2003) (La coalition d'Olten)

Social and citizenship rights

- the initiative for a European network of precarious workers and an european day of action against job insecurity (ATTAC Italy, Ac, Collettivi Stud., S.in.Cobas, Giovani Comunisti, Euromarches and others);

- The campaign, during the constitutional process of the European Union, to fight for our social rights:

- to claim that the constitutional texts the European Union is preparing to adopt at the European Summits of Thessalonica (June 2003) and Rome (December 2003), guaranty our social rights, lacking in the European Charter of fundamental rights adopted at the Nice-EU-summit;

- to claim that inside the European Union, one of the richest parts of the world, every man and women should have a living income, according to the wealth of the country, equal to at least 50% of the national product per inhabitant;

- to engage in a broad discussion to define a common Charter of social rights and citizenship;

The main initiatives:

- March 2003, Brussels : first European assembly for a European Charter of social rights and citizenship : define the principles of the Charter, define the process of further elaboration, popularise it and to mobilise to realise

- March - December 2003: a campaign of « books of demands », between march 2003, end of the European Convention, and December 2003, the IGC in Rome, to give those from below the possibility to express their suffering, their aspirations and their claims;

- 2003: a European day of action, against unemployment, insecure labour and exclusion;

- • 2003 - 2004 towards the European elections: a European march of the have-nots (unemployed, undocumented people, homeless people, migrants, poor, people without land.).

(Euromarches, Carta Catalan, AC, Apeis, MNCP, Altri, Habitat, Collettivi Sud, S.in.Cobas, GC, CCDF and many others )

 the initiative for a trans-European network of homeless and migrants (habitat);

– the campaign against sweatshops. World day of mobilisation on the  $8^{\rm th}$  of march (international women's day);

Public services, common goods

- the building of a European network to exchange experiences and analyses, to discuss alternatives, and to prepare important mobilisations, in function of the negotiations inside the WTO or when the European Commission will publish in spring its Green book on public services (Attac Italia, Attac France, Attac Suisse, Attac Austria, Espace Marx, Collectif Services Publics France, World Development Movement, Globalise Resistance, Funzione Publica/CGIL, CUB);

- the GATS-campaign: a campaign to stop the liberalisation of services, with a next deadline in march 2003, when the European Commission will make public its proposals for the GATS-talks. Mobilisations in all countries on 13.3.2002, mobilisation in front of the 'committee 133' in Brussels. Discussion on bigger demonstration still going on ('From Seattle to Brussels ', and other networks);

- Resistance to privatisations: Rights in Movement network of local groups (ATTAC Italy and others);

- the building of a European network for another health, not alone to resist but to reinforce the struggle of the health workers and of the social movements who are active on this issue.
