Some 150 persons representing various organisations (Socialists, Labour, Lawyers, justice , Aurat Foundation , and individual citizens) held a protest meeting at the Karachi Press Club, to demand lifting of martial law ( the so called emergency), and restoration of judges.

Justice Retd Fakhuruddin made a very passionate speech, and praised the judges who nullified the PCO and those who refused to take new oath under PCO.

It was announced that Monday the 5th November will be observed as a Black day and a massive protest will be organised in front of the Press Club at 4PM. So please spread the word so that a large number of citizens could turn up.

It was also announced that every one should wear a black arm band (till the martial law / emergency is lifted and the judges restored)

Look forward to see you at 4pm on Monday. (with a black arm band)

You could download the attached one pager and make as many copies as possible for distribution. Also pl. bring extra black ribbons with you.
